

This is the most complete information I have on our proposed tour from Daniel Taxi in Madeira. If anyone has any more questions or concern, please let me know. A few good websites about Madeira:

Madeira Guide Love Madeira Madeira Web

Eastern Tour of Madeira 2011 Itinerary

- Camacha
- Poiso
- Pico do Areeiro
- Ribeiro Frio
- Faial
- Santana
- Porto da Cruz
- Machico
- Santa Cruz
- Back to Funchal, Grocery Shopping, Blandy's or to the ship.

01. Tour departure meeting time is 8:30 AM and we will determine a meeting place either on the ship or on the pier. I will be asking one person in each group to be the group leader of the group to be sure everyone is there before the van departs. I think if we are all there before 9:00 AM, we will get off on time.

02. I will post a van plan once we get a firm number who are participating. Van size will be either 8 or 15 passenger depending on the size of the group. Everyone will get a PM message on the DIS or FB with their van assignment in addition to posting on first page of the DIS thread.

03. Cost is 25 Euros per adult. If you have a walker or wheelchair, the driver can place it in the rear of the van. Strollers can also be accommodated in the rear of the van.

In case there are more families with children, interested in the tour, we charge as follows:

0 to 5 year olds – free

6 to 11 year olds – 15 Euros

From 12 years old onwards – 30 Euros

These children's prices are for big groups only, in smaller groups of, say 4, 6 or even 8 people we don't discount this much.

Daniel Taxi drivers only accept Euros because banks aren't receiving dollars any more. Drivers can't accept payment by credit card either, because vehicles don't have payment devices. In case you don't bring any Euros, your driver will gladly take you to an ATM.

04. Now about our weather. In September we can have all kind of weather conditions, from hot to cold to rainy. Yes, it varies a lot depending on where you are. It can be nice and warm in Funchal, but cold on the mountains. So it's wise to carry a jacket, even if at first it feels like you won't need a jacket

05. If some of you prefer to pay in advance using PayPal, Daniel is willing to accept. As agreed, we're receptive to accepting your payment on PayPal, so here's Daniel's PayPal account address: jd-taxi@hotmail.com in fact it's the same address you're using to send your e-mails to us. If anybody else prefers to pay on PayPal, it will be ok with us too. When the other people pay through PayPal, if they add a note saying that they're coming in "Noel Birkner's group", it will be quite fine.

Note from Noel: If you are using PayPal, PLEASE SELECT PERSONAL TRANSFER as there is no fee as long as you use your bank account or PayPal account. If you use a credit card, you will need to pay a fee. Please don't pass the credit card fee to Daniel Taxi. You will pay a fee for converting dollars to Euros and that should not be passed to Daniel Taxi as well.

06. The drivers of the smaller vans are driver/guides. In fact, these driver/guides are the same people that accompany the groups in the big buses.

07. For those who have difficulty walking, there is room for a folding wheelchair in the rear of the van. Yes, even people with walking difficulties; have taken part in our tours, so your guest will be ok. The lady can choose to stay in the van sometimes, but on the longer stops she'll be able to get out and be with the others.

08. I don't think you'll feel rushed, either by following this plan or the one we have on the website, but it's true that you can't do it too leisurely. Note from Noel: I think this is the best tour we can receive in the allotted time.

09. The tour procedure is as follows: the drivers will all be at the pier, with the vans, to meet you all. You won't have to walk much, after you leave Disney Magic, to get to the vans. Before, drivers used to stand right at the end of the ship's gangway, but our pier now has a new platform and cruisers have to get into this platform to see their drivers. Due to security reasons, entrance to the pier is blocked to the people in general, so I didn't visit this new building yet.

10. During your tour, you can visit churches, but you'll see, mostly, Madeira's natural beauty. Note from Noel: If there are any churches on the itinerary that I need to mention to Eusébia to be sure we visit, please let me know.

11. For large groups we book the restaurant beforehand and, in the morning, the driver talks to the clients about the different options in the menu, so that everybody decides what they'd like to eat. The driver then calls the restaurant to place the order in advance and when the group arrives, lunch is served straight away, which is very convenient and avoids any waste of time.

12. Please make sure everybody understands that lunch is being paid extra. Sometimes people don't pay all due attention and then they feel annoyed when they discover that the meal is not included in our price.

17. The restaurant is named Restaurante Casa de Chá do Faial

18. I have received a copy of the Menu that the restaurant is going to serve us at a cost of 12 Euros per adult and 9 Euros per child plus tip. Prices per person or child are indicated on the menu. Sangria is also available at both restaurants at a cost of 13 Euros per liter and the smallest serving is 500ml jug.

You may be able to double click once on the link to make the menu larger depending on your browser settings. Menu Link

On the menu, I believe the Passion Fruit Pudim is a fruity pudding type dessert similar to this recipe.

Since everyone seemed to like the menu, I have told them this is the menu that is to be served.

19. In a previous e-mail I mentioned “espada” which is a very popular fish in Madeira. It’s not too heavy, but if you prefer something more on the light side, maybe you’d rather have, for instance a soup and sandwich. Anyway, the restaurant caters for everything, so it’ll be up to each and every person to choose whatever they feel like having.. Yes, black scabbard is “espada” the fish I told you about. It’s nice, not too heavy and is, usually, enjoyed by all.

Side note from Noel: Here is an article to read on espada:

Espada

This is a picture of Espada lunch.

20. Note from Noel: For anyone who is interested in what is typical Madeiran cuisine, here are a couple of articles to read:

Madeira Cuisine

Recipes and Dishes in Madeira

Here is picture of grilled lapas, a special shellfish.

21. The restaurants will be providing a Bolo de Mel (Honey Cake) tasting when we arrive at no additional charge.

Honey Cake

22. For those who like or are vegetarian, even if the restaurant doesn't have any special vegetarian dishes, I'm sure they'll be more than happy to make a salad for them or even vegetables.

23. The restaurant will, most probably, make separate bills for each person. They accept credit card but it'll be better if you get your Euros beforehand, to speed up the paying process. There are ATMs in Porto Moniz, in case you need them there. Please be sure to allow enough in Euros to tip at the restaurant if you are paying in cash.

24. With respect to using credit cards from America, some of our American clients have used their cards here and they didn't have any problems. So I think your group will be ok too. If some want to shop, yes, most shops accept credit cards.

25. Where's the best place for Poncha? (Since the itinerary below doesn't include time in Câmara de Lobos) For the Poncha, any souvenir shop will do.

Note from Noel: Here is an interesting article about the Poncha:

PONCHA DA MADEIRA

The Poncha is a drink originated in India, brought by the British, and adapted by Madeirans. The Indian name given to the drink, namely pānch, was initially composed by five ingredients: Rice or nut coconut spirit, sugar, tea of fresh herbs, spices and water. It is believed now that the Poncha has been experienced for the first time outside India, on Madeira Island in the middle of the eighteenth century by the English at that time, during their travels between these parts.

Throughout the nineteenth century the Poncha was a popular drink within the Madeira the more or less wealthy families on the island.

Today, the tradition of Poncha remains very much alive among us, on Madeira, and the instruments used to assist in preparation of these drinks, in essence has not changed much.

In Madeira, this drink was adapted to be used with honey, sugar cane spirit, lemon juice and lemon peel. The Poncha has become very popular due to the fact of being considered a good drink to heal the ills of the throat ... has many other things. When you are on Madeira ... experience a Poncha ... and taste the Madeiran culture.

28. Note from Noel: If individuals want to do the wine tastings, your individual tasting reservations should be made at Old Blandy's at 4:30 PM. Please sign on their website to make your own reservations: Old Blandy Wine Shop Link:

The cost is 5 Euros per adult person when you make your own reservations on the site. You do not pay on the site. This is a reservation only site and you pay on the tour. Minimum age for tasting is 18 and was confirmed by Eusébia.

28. I called Blandy's about children being allowed to take part in guided tours with their parents, they said "Yes, they are" and they even added that from the age of 6 till they are 15, children pay only 2.50 Euros. From then on they pay full price.

29. A question came up about children visiting Blandy's and how to book their reservation. I called Blandy's about your question and they said: — where it says "n. of people" she types the total amount, which, in her case, is 6. Then, further down, in "Observations", she explains that 3 of them are children.

30. I called Blandy's and was told that each guide takes 30 people. In case there are more people interested, if there's another guide available, they'll start another group. Eusébia also said that it's very important to book in advance, so that they are prepared with enough guides on the day so no one is disappointed.

31. For those in your group who can walk well, it will take them 30-40 minutes from Blandy's to the pier. Or people can choose to be taken shopping for wine, groceries etc.

32. If some of the people in your group aren't doing the wine tasting and would rather be taken back to the cruise ship instead, the driver will drop them off there at no extra charge.

33. Something I'm thinking now: the people who aren't going to Blandy's, but want to do some shopping in Funchal before taking the van back to the pier at 5:30pm, it is better to discuss with their driver what type of shopping they're planning to do, so that the driver leaves them at the appropriate location, otherwise they won't have enough time to shop. On the other hand, if it's souvenirs they're planning to buy, Porto Moniz has some good souvenir shops and their time in Funchal could be used for exploring a bit and some photo taking. This is a mere suggestion, of course people are welcome to do as they please.

34. Once we get the count of who wants to go back right after the wine tasting, Daniel will provide a free ride back to the Magic for those who want to go back. If you want to stay in town, you may and arrange your own transportation back to the ship.

35. Daniel is very pleased to offer you tour members a ride from Blandy's back to the ship. His reason is that, as you need to be back by 4:15pm, your tour will be shorter than usual for a day tour, so no problem extending the drivers' service a bit longer. Daniel also suggested that, if one or more vans happen to have, only, people not going to Blandy's, they can do their tour in a more relaxed way and arrive in Funchal.